

As a constituent, I am extremely concerned at the potential endangerment of our freedom to choose from a wide variety of media sources. The future of our educational, informational, and cultural experiences rests in your hands.